Shoot Cashier of Citizen's Bank and Policeman who Guard Frisco Payroll At Springfield.

Bandits in a Nash car held up T. J. Watkins, cashier of the Citizen's bank of Springfield, and Ben Lamb, a policeman about 10:30 o'clock this morning and robbed them of $30,000. The two were in a car transferring the money for the Frisco pay roll from the Union National Bank to the Citizen's Bank.

Both men were shot and report is that Ben Lamb was shot through the back, the bullet penetrating his lung, and that Watkins was shot in the arm.

The bandits were in a Nash car with white wheels. The hold up occurred near the White City ball park. The robbers went out on the boulevard and turned east, from point the trail was lost.

Efforts are being made to locate the robbers and Monett officers are lending every assistance possible. The first report was that there were five men in the Nash car used by the holdup men.
